Erie Ticket Agent.

The police to-day confessed they were at sea for a ciue to the holdup of the Erie Railroad ticket office, at No. 1275 Broadway, during the rush hour last night. They have questioned Joseph Farrell, the man in charge of the office when the "stickup" occurred, and have had him looking over the Rogues' Gallery. If the clerk saw any picture bear-ing resemblance to his visitor the police will not say anything about it.

For cool daring and good, steady nerve holdup has the lone highwayman of te West looking like a scarecrow in a cerpfield. Only one man appeared. The police believe he had confederates outede the office ready to go to his aid in case they were needed. It was in no dark and deserted corner of the city that the job was "pulled off."

It was in the heart of New York's main theroughters, on one of the most main thoroughfare, on one of the most pet across the narrow lane of Thirtybird street is the McAlpin Hotel, the aggest hotel in the world. At the orner, adjoining the office, is a big ogar store. On the other side of Broad-eay are the stores of Gimbel, of Macy and of Saks.

Directly across Broadway is the enance to the Hudson tube. Just beyond the Sixth avenue elevated line. From s big stores, the employees were thronging the streets on their way to the various car lines. The people were pouring out from offices in the neigh-

The streets were fammed with nedesdans and one man was holding a revolver up to another just a step off the money in the office and quietly threatening to blow his victim's head of if he uttered a sound which might act the crowds.

THOMAS F. RYAN'S SONS DISSOLVE THEIR FIRM.

Official announcement was made to-day that the firm of Allan A. Ryan & Brother, stock brokers, which Thomas Fortune Ryan established to give his sons a chance in Wall street, had been dissolved owing to the continued illness of Allan Ryan, who has undergone several operations recently.

Although the firm will cease to do bysiness, there is nothing offered for sale.

Alian Ryan, for whom his father purchased a seat in the Stock Exchange, will retain the seat and his brother, Clendents J. Ryan, will go to Virginia to look after business interests of his

For months neither of the brothers has been able to devote himself to the business. It will be months perhaps be-fore Alian Ryan recovers sufficiently to engage actively in business. Mr. Ryan established his sons in Wall Street in 1906. The firm was dissolved New Year's but the announcement was not

Diamond Buyers

Our Diamond buyers at the Diamond cutting Mills of Amsterdam and Antwerp are well known there as being very particular about buying Diamonds only that have a large spread of surface and look to be nearly twice their actual weight when mounted. They will not buy Diamonds that are cut thick and humpy in order to save extra weight for the cutter, who of course shared is by cutting them so, as all Diamonds are bought and sold by the curat (seight). Our Diamonds are selected for their fine blue white color and brilliancy, and we always mark the actual weight and sides slainly on the tag for your inspection.
